TRADES ASSEMBLY.

A Breezy Session of the Organization of Labor Nabobs.

CONGRESSMAN WILSON DECLINES

To be Present at the Labor Day Celebration on Account of Poor Health—A Discussion Regarding Change in the Constitution That Waxed Very Warm—Arrangements for the Coming Celebration of Labor Day—New Delegates Obligated.

A regular meeting of the Ohio Valley Trades and Labor Assembly was held at the hall of the organization yesterday afternoon, President Richard Robertson in the chair. There was an unusually large attendance of delegates on hand. The following delegates were admitted to the assembly and obligated: National Brotherhood of Operative Pottery—Harry Hales, John E. Gurdach and W. T. Neelbitt. Iron Molders' Union, No. 57—George Seybold and Levi Smith. Printers' Union—A. H. Stephenson. Ironworkers' Union—E. Murkin. Secretary Saulsbury, of the assembly, read the minutes of the last meeting of the general committee on labor day, which were approved. The secretary also read the following letter from Hon. William L. Wilson, of the Second district:

COMMITTEE ON WAYS AND MEANS
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
WASHINGTON, D. C., July 25, 1894.

My Dear Sir: My arduous duties, greatly increased with of late by an aggravated attack of neuritis, have prevented an earlier acknowledgment of your letter inviting me in behalf of the committee on arrangements, to attend the annual Labor day demonstration of the Ohio Valley Trades and Labor Assembly in Wheeling on the twenty-fifth day of August. I am very grateful for the invitation and if I were in my usual health, should be glad to accept it. But my nervous system, not yet recovered from the strain of my long sickness last winter, is yet so much quivering that I am doing all my present work in violation of the commands and mandates of my physicians. Should Congress adjourn by the twenty-fifth of August, I shall feel bound to take all the rest and quiet I can command before starting upon my fall labors. With renewed thanks for your invitation and for the best wishes for a thorough and unprecedented success of your approaching demonstration, I am, Yours sincerely, Wm. L. Wilson.

THOMAS V. SAULSBURY, Secretary.
Ex-Arbitrator Riley said the only unfinished business on hand for his successor is the Squire Arklemaster before the board of county commissioners, to come before the board on August 27, and the trouble between Contractor Perkins and the bricklayers. As to the latter, he said, some of the bricklayers had gone back to work. The matter at present is in the hands of the arbitrators' union.

A communication from a Pittsburgh bakers' union, the one that asked for the boycott on a local bakery, was received, and it was stated the boycott was not being pushed by that union. A delegate therefore moved that the boycott be removed. There was violent objection, and a motion to lay the matter on the table was carried.

The matter of a change in the constitution of the assembly, providing for the old style arbitration committee in place of the newly established official, the arbitrator, was discussed. The arbitrator, who recently resigned, Mr. W. H. Riley, made a strong argument in favor of the restoration of the committee. A delegate took a stand in favor of the one man, arbitrator, system, the principal objection being the expense in connection with a committee on arbitration. The discussion for a time was very heated, and two members engaged in a cross play of words which was exciting while it lasted. A hot corner delegate took the stand that it is proper the assembly shall stand all expenses of arbitration, citing the fact that the unions, by participating in labor day, fill the coffers of the assembly; this delegate felt "moved in his heart" to say more, but he did not want to be called a "wind mill," a term that had already been applied more or less freely. Finally the question on the Dobler amendment, providing for an arbitration committee, was called and resulted 43 to 3 in its favor.

President Robertson then appointed as the new arbitration committee, Messrs. Grogan, Riley and Burt. As these gentlemen had all taken prominent parts in the somewhat heated discussion, there was much merriment caused by the president's announcement.

The Steubenville tailor delegates introduced the subject of a proposed boycott on a tailor in that place, and it was decided to place it.

LABOR DAY COMMITTEE.
The last meeting of those in charge before the celebration.

At the meeting of the labor day general committee Vice President Floto presided and Secretary Saulsbury was at the desk. The potters and glassworkers promised to attend generally. The miners also reported they would attend in force. The East Liverpool potters reported they had a celebration of their own to attend. The committee on printing was authorized to spend $20 in newspaper advertising. The committee on stand privileges had nothing to report. The amusement committee reported it had purchased the prizes for the bicycle race. There are three and they are all beauties, a gold watch, a diamond cluster pin and a set ring.

One of the races, the trot, it was said would be a "cinch" for a certain horse, none of the others would have a show. Consequently arrangements had been made for a special match race between Michael Agnie's and E. J. Elliott's horses. The general committee agreed to the change.

The cake walk it was said is sure to be the greatest event on the programme, and the committee wanted authority to build the stand across the track, also to put up in addition to the cake prize, five dollars for two other prizes. This was agreed to.

There was some discussion regarding a volunteer ladies' committee taking charge of the labor day picnic at the fair grounds. No action was taken, the affair being left in the hands of a sub-committee to decide.

Those desiring any of the various stands and privileges at the fair grounds should apply to one of these members of the committee: Ned Sims, 137 1/2 Jackson counseling rooms; J. H. Purcell, 111 South Penn street; Charles Bryson, 3211 Jacob street.

ON THE WHEELING DIVISION.

The Columbus Scale Pronounced a Farce By Flourish—Rescued Trouble Possible.

"Unless the miners' officials succeed in inducing the diggers of the Pittsburgh & Chicago Gas Coal Company to quit mining at the 60-cent rate before next Tuesday, that same rate will prevail at my mines," Boyle Bros. and D. M. Anderson's. Such was the startling statement made by Henry Flourish, the well known coal operator of the Wheeling division of the Baltimore & Ohio. Continuing, he said: "That Columbus agreement is a farce now, although I did subscribe to it, and the national strike has resulted in nothing."

This is a most important statement when it is considered that hundreds of thousands of dollars were lost on the strike; that many people were killed or beaten; that the militia were called out in three states, and mills and work-shops closed because of the strike. If the Wheeling division breaks away from the agreement the Pan-Haule scale price will be ignored in the "thick vein" district, and, in fact, the Western Pennsylvania district would be lost to the miners so far as observance of the Columbus agreement is concerned. If it should break away, Ohio would have to do the same, and the result would be that there would be a return to the conditions which existed prior to the strike.

A miners' official bitterly remarked, discussing the Columbus agreement: "It is not worth the paper it is written upon. The operators who acquiesced in it merely did so until they could stock up coal, and, as they have enough to last for some time, they are prepared to ignore it."

An operator who never acceded to the agreement, which informed Mr. Flourish's statement, took a copy of the agreement from his drawer and pointed to the clause where it says that those who empowered the operators' committee to go to Columbus, bound themselves to uphold the scale so long as it is "generally" observed. "According to Mr. Cairn's own statement," he said, "there are 133 mines out of 144, in the Pittsburgh district, where the scale is signed. Is not that a general observance? Besides, the Pittsburgh and Chicago Gas Coal Company does not compete for general trade. Its contracts would keep it busy for months."

The Brilliant Iron Works.

The people of Brilliant are very much interested in the negotiations, which are pending for the starting of the works of the Brilliant Steel and Iron company. Rumors of the sale of the plant, increase of capital stock and reorganization and change of the works to produce other products, and various other changes, have been in the air for some time and it is now thought over there that changes of some kind will be made and the plant be put in operation by September 1.

Telephones For Harrosville.

Another effort will be made this week to get Harrosville connected with a telephone system, says the Enterprise. Mr. H. K. Wolf, superintendent of the Wheeling company, will be here, and the system he intends to introduce will be the same as that used in Wheeling, and in fact all the large cities of the country, giving Harrosville direct connection with the long line telephones over the country.

WHAT AILS YOU?

Do you feel dull, languid, low-spirited, fullness or bloating after eating, tongue coated, bitter or bad taste in mouth, irregular appetite, frequent headaches, "floating spots" before eyes, nervous prostration and drowsiness after meals?

If you have any considerable number of these symptoms, you are suffering from Bilious Liver, associated with Dyspepsia, or Indigestion. The more complicated your disease the greater the number of symptoms.

No matter what stage it has reached, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will subdue it.

Mrs. Mary Mott, of Harrosville, Pa., writes: "Before using your Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, everything I ate would ferment in my stomach, and my tongue was so terribly coated, I thought nothing would remove it. Since taking the 'Golden Medical Discovery,' I can get a good meal, and enjoy it."

Monroeville Camp Trains via D. & O. will leave Wheeling daily, except Sunday, at 7:50 and 11:15 a. m., and 6:10 p. m., and Saturday only at 10:30 p. m. Returning will leave camp station at 8:55 and 8:40 a. m., 12:45 and 7:35 p. m. daily, except Sunday, and Saturday only at 9:35 p. m. Round trip, including admission to the camp, 65 cents.
